SENATE BILL No. 171

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning courts and court officers.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

- 1 SECTION 1. IC 33-33-49-15.5 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA
2 CODE AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS
3 [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2014]: Sec. 15.5. (a) Notwithstanding any
4 other law, this section applies to the operation of a community
5 corrections program in Marion County and the probation
6 department of the Marion superior court. If there is a conflict
7 between this section and any other statute, this section controls.
8 (b) The following definitions apply throughout this section:
9 (1) "Chief" means the chief probation officer and executive
10 director of community corrections established by this section.
11 (2) "Community corrections" means the Marion County
12 community corrections program.
13 (3) "Community supervision department" means the Marion
14 superior court community supervision department established
15 by this section.
16 (4) "Executive committee" means the executive committee of

1 the Marion superior court.

2 (5) "Probation department" means the Marion superior court
3 probation department.

4 (c) To eliminate redundancies in processes and systems between 5 the probation department and community corrections, the 6 executive committee shall establish a three (3) year pilot project to 7 consolidate the operations, funding, and staff of community
8 corrections with the operations, funding, and staff of the probation
9 department.

10 (d) The consolidated probation and community corrections
11 department described in subsection (c) is named the Marion
12 superior court community supervision department. The operation
13 of the community supervision department is directed by an 14 individual appointed by the executive committee, whose title shall
15 be chief probation officer and executive director of community
16 corrections. The chief serves at the pleasure of the executive
17 committee and reports directly to the executive committee and a
18 supervising judge appointed by the executive committee to oversee 19 the community supervision department.

20 (e) The chief shall consult with the community corrections
21 advisory board in carrying out the duties of the chief's office.

22 (f) The executive board shall appoint a deputy director for 23 community corrections. The deputy director for community
24 corrections serves at the pleasure of the executive committee and 25 reports to the chief. Existing community corrections staff report to 26 the deputy director through the existing organizational structure.

27 (g) The executive board shall appoint a deputy director for adult
28 probation. The deputy director may be a chief probation officer.
29 The deputy director for adult probation serves at the pleasure of 30 the executive committee and reports to the chief. Existing adult
31 probation department staff report to the deputy director through 32 the existing organizational structure.

33 (h) The executive board shall appoint a deputy director for 34 juvenile probation. The deputy director may be a chief probation 35 officer. The deputy director for juvenile probation serves at the 36 pleasure of the executive committee and reports to the chief.
37 Existing juvenile probation department staff report to the deputy 38 director through the existing organizational structure.

39 (i) The existing position of chief financial officer of community
40 corrections is renamed finance supervisor. The executive 41 committee shall appoint the finance supervisor, who reports to the 42 chief. The finance supervisor serves at the pleasure of the executive committee.

(j) The community supervision fund is established for the purpose of funding the community supervision department. The community supervision fund shall be administered by the executive committee, and consists of grants, appropriations, and fees. The expenses of administering the community supervision fund shall be paid from money in the fund. The treasurer of state shall invest the money in the community supervision fund not currently needed to meet the obligations of the fund in the same manner as other public money may be invested. Interest that accrues from these investments shall be deposited in the fund. Money in the fund at the end of a state fiscal year does not revert to the state general fund.

(k) After June 30, 2014, and before July 1, 2017, all agreements and liabilities of the probation department and community corrections are transferred to the community supervision department, as the successor agency during the period of the pilot project. All records and property of the probation department and community corrections are transferred to the community supervision department, as the successor agency during the period of the pilot project. After June 30, 2014, and before July 1, 2017, any amounts owed to the probation department or community corrections are considered to be owed to the community supervision department, as the successor agency during the period of the pilot project.

(l) Notwithstanding any other law, after June 30, 2014, and before July 1, 2017, any grants, funds, fees (including user fees and court fees), or other property or sources of income that are appropriated or would otherwise be required to be transferred to the probation department or community corrections shall be transferred to the community supervision fund. The balance of any account or fund:

(1) administered by; or

(2) under the control or supervision of;

the probation department or community corrections shall be transferred to the community supervision fund. The executive committee may disburse this money to fund the community supervision department, and for no other purpose.

(m) After June 30, 2017:

(1) the balance in the community supervision fund shall be distributed to the probation department and community corrections on a pro rata basis, as determined by the executive committee;

1 (2) agreements and liabilities of the community supervision
2 department shall be distributed to the probation department
3 and community corrections in an appropriate manner as
4 determined by the executive committee; and

5 (3) amounts owed to the community supervision department
6 must be amounts owed to the probation department or
7 community corrections, as determined by the executive
8 committee.

9 (n) This section expires July 1, 2017.
